FROM THE DESK OF FATHER PHIL

Beloved of God,

It seems Summer is finally here. The days are longer, the sun shines brightly and we even have some heat and humidity in the air. Our thoughts and activities turn to the beach, the golf course, the yard and the garden. For some it is time to family vacations, reunions and cook-outs. School takes a long break and our daily routines change to reflect the season, at least a little. Even at church, like many congregations, we go to a "Summer schedule"...one service at 9:00 a.m. beginning Sunday, June 24, through Sunday September 2. It is good for us to feel the sun, to be out in the fresh air, to move a little more and to eat some fresh locally grown produce... as opposed to hothouse tomatoes ! In all of this, remember to take in a sunrise or a sunset. Listen to the birds and watch the bees and butterflies at work. If you are so fortunate, listen to the waves of the ocean or a lake, perhaps even the gentle rolling and gurgle of a river. If you have the habit of daily devotions, do your devotions outside on the deck, patio or porch. God has given us nature and its wonders not simply for our use and exploitation, but for our nurture, repose, and consolation. His gracious hand can be seen in many ways all about us...take time to look, listen and ponder. Never forgetting to give God glory and to say simply, "Thank you."

Blessings,
Fr. Phil

Father's Day Prayer

God our Father,
you govern and protect your people and shepherd them with a father's love.
You place a father in a family as a sign of your love, care, and constant protection.

May fathers everywhere be faithful to the example shown in the Scriptures:
steadfast in love, forgiving transgressions, sustaining the family, caring for those in need.

Give your wisdom to fathers that they may encourage and guide their children.
Keep them healthy
so they may support a family.

Guide every father with the Spirit of your love that they may grow in holiness and draw their family ever closer to you.
Amen

Family by Mary Moore

So much meaning in the word,
We are drawn together by birth.
Pre-destined by God -
For reasons known only
To Him.

We are so small, so helpless when
We are placed here -
We see our world only
As a narrow tunnel
Leading to all our needs.
But time goes by so quickly
Bringing changes -
Some good and some bad.
The fragile ties that have Bound us to others stretch - Often bend and break.
Togetherness sometimes shatters
Like broken glass as we struggle
To fill our needs.

Tiny shards -
Too small to mend, yet we Are still bound by blood.
That cannot be changed.
After all we are still and will always be family.
