Form III

The Leader and People pray responsively

Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons, especially Alan and Gayle, our Bishops and Philip our priest;
That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world, especially Donald our President and Charlie our Governor;
That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
That they may be delivered from their distress.

Give to the departed eternal rest.
Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

Silence

Summer is Officially Here:

The summer solstice, also known as midsummer, occurs when one of the Earth's poles has its maximum tilt toward the Sun. It happens twice yearly, once in each hemisphere (Northern and Southern). For that hemisphere, the summer solstice is when the Sun reaches its highest position in the sky and is the day with the longest period of daylight.

The significance given to the summer solstice has varied among cultures, but most recognize the event in some way with holidays, festivals, and rituals around that time with themes of religion or fertility. In some regions, the summer solstice is seen as the beginning of summer and the end of spring. In other cultural conventions, the solstice is closer to the middle of summer.

Whichever way you look at the summer solstice, whether as the beginning or mid-summer, we hope you enjoy this time of warmth and relaxation with reflection about how God's love is always surrounding us with his light.

Clouds

A poem by Mary J. Moore

Looking up towards the heavens
Watching the clouds as they pass by.
Silently sailing through the deep blue sky.
You find your mind beginning to see beautiful images.
Images that were meant to be.
Billowing and thick like a large scoop of ice cream
on a hot summer's day.
Or – maybe some fluffy cotton candy.
So close you feel you could reach out and touch them.
Still, there are even more beautiful images of God's wonderful creatures.
Filling you with such happiness and peace.
Memories of childhood –
What a wonderful way to spend the day.
