

The Great Thanksgiving*

Presider: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Presider: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to the Lord.

Presider: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider: Loving and gracious God, at the beginning of creation your Spirit moved across the void and brooded over the dark waters as your living Word spoke all things into existence. You breathed the Spirit of life into man and woman. Through human pride, sin, fear, and death came into the world. You did not abandon your creation, but promised to redeem fallen nature and broken humanity. From the descendants of Abraham you formed a people to learn your ways and be a light to all nations. From this people, you brought forth Jesus, your Son, to teach us the ways of your love and mercy, to reconcile your creation to you.

Presider: Blessed are you, Lord of heaven and earth. In your mercy for our fallen world you gave your only Son, that all who believe in him should not perish, but have eternal life. We give thanks to you for the salvation you have prepared for us through Jesus Christ. Send now your Spirit into our hearts, that we may receive our Lord with a living faith as he comes to us in his holy supper.

All: Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Presider: In the night in which he was betrayed our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat, this is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.
After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sins. Do this for the remembrance of me.

All: Amen

Invitation

Presider: As we gather this morning, we remember our sisters and brothers from above and below the equator, from North America, South America, the West Indies, Africa, Asia, Australia, and Europe. As today's sunlight inches across land and sea Christians gather to celebrate their place in God's family. All are invited and all are welcome, in the Name of God; the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer. Amen. (adapted from the United Church of Christ)

Welcome to Trinity Episcopal-Anglican Church

We welcome all who are worshipping with us today. Trinity Church is a parish of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts, part of the Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and a member of the World-wide Anglican Communion. Our families represent the Anglican Church found in the United States, the West Indies, Nigeria, Uganda, Haiti and Liberia. We are proud of our diversity and our unity in the Lord Jesus. With the grace and help of God, we strive to be a welcoming, patient, accepting faith-filled Christian community. It is our hope that you too will find the presence of the Lord in this place.

Sunday Service Schedule Summer Hours:

Prayers of the People Summer 2019

Celebrant: Sisters and Brothers in Christ Jesus, keeping in mind the words of our Lord Jesus, "Be not afraid," in confidence let us join together in prayer lifting up the thoughts of our minds and the intentions of our hearts to God, our heavenly Father.

We pray for all our Christian brothers and sisters throughout the world. May all the baptized witness in their lives to the compassion, justice, and mercy of God, in whom all people are brothers and sisters. May our brothers and sisters who are persecuted for their faith, be strengthened and delivered by God's grace and upheld in their witness by our prayers. We especially remember... (anglican, diocesan & local cycles of prayer inserted here) We ask this in Jesus' name....
Lord, have mercy.

Heavenly Father, we ask you to bless our nation with civility, wise leadership, and sound moral character. In times of prosperity may we always give you thanks and in times of trouble may we never lose confidence in your grace and goodness. We ask this in Jesus' name....
Lord, have mercy.

Heavenly Father, you have created us in your image, giving the whole world into our care, may we always care for all creation as your precious gift to us and may we see your image in our fellow human beings. We ask this in Jesus' name....
Lord, have mercy.

Heavenly Father, in prayer and faith, we lift into your presence those we love who are in need of prayer, blessing, strength, comfort, or healing. We especially remember.... (parish prayer list inserted here)
In Jesus' name we pray...
Lord, have mercy.

Heavenly Father, we remember before you our loved ones and fellow parishioners who have entered into your eternal rest. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, rest in peace. We ask this in Jesus' name....
Lord, have mercy.

Heavenly Father, we remember those who are serving this country in the military or civilian service, especially those in harms way and those who have died in service to their country. We ask this in Jesus' name....
Lord, have mercy.

Announcements:

- ❖ Fr. Phil will be away from July 27 -August 4. Fr. Grant Barber will be celebrating with us on July 28 and August 4. In case of a pastoral need, please call the Wardens or the church office.
- ❖ A Youth Group trip to a Boston Red Sox game is being planned for August 6. This is open to current youth group members and recent grads. Also adult participation is welcome. More details to follow.
- ❖ Please remember: The flowers and plants around the church need to be watered. Please volunteer to help keep the flowers alive and beautiful. See Sue Hart for more details.

Pastor's Note:

Brothers and Sisters,

On Monday, July 22, the Church celebrates the feast day of St. Mary Magdalene. One of the two smaller icons on the back altar with the icon of St. Josephine, is an icon of St. Mary Magdalene. In the icon, Mary Magdalene is pictured in the scene of a pious legend told about her life as an Apostle of Jesus. I use the word Apostle because, Mary Magdalene, was the first one to see the risen Lord and to be sent by Jesus to tell of his resurrection. The legend which is pictured in our icon (by Janet McKenzie) is :

Mary Magdalene, beloved the world over, serves as a source of hope and courage, illuminating the role of women in the story of salvation. After the Ascension, Mary traveled to visit Emperor Tiberius in Rome to proclaim the Resurrection. holding an egg in her hand she proclaimed "Christ is risen!" The Emperor said the Jesus had no more risen from the dead than the egg she held was red. At the Emperor's words, the egg turned red as a sign from God of the truth of her message. Mary Magdalene, the first one sent to proclaim the Resurrection, was faithful to Jesus' vision of the kingdom of God in which all are welcome and justice reigns. (Mary Magdalene - Invitation to Love, 2012, Janet McKenzie)

Blessings, Pastor Phil
